1. This is an application for extension of time to return to India. It is seen that by an order dated 15.2.2006 applicant was permitted to go abroad for a period of 3 months. However, he applied for extension and by an order dated 12.5.2006 he was allowed to stay for 3 more months. Now an application was filed virtually on the last day on 11.8.2006 and was circulated today. I find that the application is vague. No reason is given as to why he wants extension of time. Advocate for the applicant states that he will give reasons to the officer. In the circumstances, application is rejected. However, in order to facilitiate the applicant, as a matter of grace, 3 weeks time is granted for returning back to India. After he return back, applicant will be at liberty to re-apply giving full details as to why he wants to stay abroad.
